DEKRA Arbeit Group: Shared. Together.

The know-how and experience of specialists guarantee successful solutions

The DEKRA Arbeit Group is among the most successful personnel service companies in Germany. Since 1998, we are part of the business unit personnel in the DEKRA corporate group. We support client companies as well as employees with qualified career and personnel planning. The core of the service we offer is a placement-oriented model of classic employee assignment that links the employee requirement on the corporate side with attractive job perspectives for temporary employees.

Our range of services is also among the most extensive on the market, providing customised HR support for small, medium, and large companies. So with over 120 national and international offices, we are not only among the top 10 in the personnel services sector in terms of size.

The subsidiary DEKRA Event & Logistic Services GmbH offers individual employee solutions in the trade fair and event sector as well as in logistics.

Human resources management

■ Employee assignment

We take you a step further with our qualified employees for industrial-technical and commercial occupations. Our services are legally compliant according to collective wage agreement for your short-term or long-term personnel requirements.

■ Engineering

Professional experience and flexibility are of great importance, particularly in engineering. We support you during the development and implementation of your corporate projects with highly qualified personnel.

■ Medical services

We know the specific employment market in the medical environment and are competently at your side during the selection and supervision of precisely fitting professional personnel.

■ Personnel placement

You can rely on our job placement competence in case of acute personnel requirements. We will undertake the complete organisation of the selection process from designing the job description via an initial preselection to the job interview.

■ OnSite / master vendor

Complex projects necessitate high personnel expenses and therefore organisational expenditure.

You can confidently leave the administrative control of staff assignment to us, if desired, directly with you on site and round the clock on request!

Solution management

The conditions and requirements in the employment market are becoming more and more specific. Legal requirements, international competition and shortage of skilled personnel are aspects which must be considered during personnel planning in order to permanently ensure the success and quality of work results.

The solution management sector supports clients with this challenge and develops individual solution models for a qualified staffing of employees.

Experienced HR consulting.
Individual. Subject-specific. Solution-oriented.

Solution management

■ Managed service provider

As an independent service provider, we undertake the complete planning, management and control of your personnel requirement. Our neutral vendor management is a professional interface between you and your suppliers.

■ Employment & service contract

Modern forms of work are very complex. But which solution is perfect for your company? We support you on a regularly basis in the optimal choice of cooperation and reliable personnel planning in the interests of all parties involved.

■ International professional exchange programme

We have also been internationally active since 2002, so we can readily support you with transnational HR solutions. Qualified EU employees expand your personnel scope and ensure your success strategy at home and abroad.

■ Office & finance

We are your competent contact in case of capacity bottlenecks in the commercial sector. We undertake your entire payroll and financial accounting in a transparent, qualified, and cost-effective manner.

■ Occupational health and safety

Occupational safety is the uppermost priority. With our broad-based personnel competence, we will support you in the compliance with legally required occupational safety measures and accident prevention regulations.

■ Health protection

Healthy and satisfied employees are a company's most valuable capital. We will support you in all areas of occupational safety and health measures and properly implement your investigative and promotional measures.

Event & logistics management

For many years, the event & logistics management sector has been undertaking the personnel planning and organisation of events, trade fairs, marketing campaigns as well as professional transport and logistics solutions at home and abroad for client companies.

In addition to qualified event employees and personnel of all categories, numerous services such as vehicle fleet management or the organisation of travel and events from one source are offered in addition.

Professional service.

Experienced. Client-oriented. Increasing success.

Human resources management

Modern HR consulting is a mainstay of operational optimisation processes. The human resources management sector supports clients in the legally compliant implementation of required organisational measures.

By means of professional consultation, professional situation, and potential analyses as well as modern outplacement, the staff structure is optimised and the success and personnel efficiency on the corporate side is increased at the same time.

Legally compliant HR consulting.
Professional. Sustainable. Efficient.

Human resources management

■ HR consulting

With our individual consulting approach, we support you in all legal and economic issues pertaining to the subject of HR management.

Our goal: high legal compliance, optimal personnel conditions, and cost-efficient staff solutions.

■ Interim management

Our experienced experts in operative and strategic management will support you during any challenges. And always exactly when you need us. Uncomplicated, professional, promptly, and efficiently.

■ Outplacement

In case of a reorganizational requirement, we are at your side as a strong partner. Whether as career consulting or transfer company, we will realise the best possible solution for you and your employees.

■ Potential analyses

We prepare a comprehensive profile of your applicants and employees – because knowing the strengths and weaknesses of every individual is the first step towards success and immediately enhances the value of your organisation.

■ HR / labour law workshops

The legal provisions in labour law are characterised by depth of detail and change. Keep yourself and your HR managers informed while obtaining valuable background information in addition to general practical tips within the scope of our subject-specific workshops.

The background of the entire page is a composite image. It features a close-up of a human hand holding a transparent globe. Overlaid on the globe and the background is a complex network of thin, light-colored lines connecting various points. Some of these points are highlighted with small, solid circles in orange and black. The overall aesthetic is modern and technological, suggesting global connectivity and networked systems.
